|      | The Folckner family | held their annual reunionon Sunday May 24, 1953. This was the third reunion with onlyone relative missing, Aunt Mabel. She was in Worcester with her son.We all gathered at the Washington Hall for a dark luncheon.Dessert and supper prepared by Mr. & August Folckner. Theladies brought potato salad & other. Sister Folckner provided eventhe luncheon meeting at which it was decided to have a lunchlunch next year the first Sunday in May. Willie Folcknerand August Folckner were re-elected president &secretary respectively. Card games were enjoyedduring the afternoon. |

May 2, 1954 | Fourth Annual Summerwas elected new president and Mrs. Eva Decker (Lulu)secretary. It was voted to have a pork & beef barbecuenext year, the first Sunday in May. Those absentwere Mrs. Eva Schaeffer, * Jennette & Jerry & Mrs. &Mrs. Harold Holbrook & Gary. The weather was badwith thunderstorms all day. Cool too! - A deliciouspicnic lunch and many hot prepared dishes wereserved for dinner & supper. Bird games wereenjoyed by both men and women during theafternoon. |

| will send you some photographs. It was decided to have | Chubb's barbers next year & to have the summer at the same | place. July 2nd and 3rd visited as the time as the |
| last Sunday before the 4th of July. Card games were    | engaged by the men & the women & kids just visited. It     | was a success.                                     |

| First Sunday in July.                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | A nation was also made <sup>at</sup> the Washington in 1957 |         |
| If the Hall is ready. Singing, dancing, playing cards & things was enjoyed by the group during the afternoon. We we called, learned coffee, cake, pie, & lectures children also served as a snack before going home. |                                                                        |         |
| Also during the afternoon Rev. Davenport had a short devotion which was very inspiring. We thanked the Falkenbergs family for inviting them and letting him serve as their Chaplain.                                                       |                                                                        |         |

Remarks

May 2, 1971

The Kelblount family held their 20th. annual reunion at the Washington County Fairground. All members present enjoyed a chicken barbecue. Harry Kelblount led us in prayer.

In the business meeting following the noon meal, the Kelblount family and the Walter Schuster family were informed that they were in charge for the next year. Jack and Ray were selected as the meet for the 1972 meal, and it was left up to the family in charge to choose the night for the next reunion. It was decided that the reunion be held again on the first Sunday in May.
